The UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts provide an excellent and practice proven tool for cross-border contracts:

- They constitute a neutral and pragmatic business oriented contractual regime for cross-border contracts
- They contain multiple solutions to typical contractual questions regarding the life of a contract, often by way of a compromise between civil and common law
- They have been referenced in hundreds of decisions of arbitral tribunals or national state courts
- They have been endorsed inter alia by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (last in 2021) and the Union Internationale des Avocats (2020) bringing together through its bar association and individual members approximately two million lawyers in more than 110 countries.

Thirty years after their first publication, it is arguably malpractice to ignore them.
