

Disability Inclusion in Arbitration

Join us on 26 March 2024 for an unprecedented event on the occasion of the 31st Vis Moot – an event that further promotes ID&E in international arbitration, specifically the often neglected issues of ableism and disability inclusion in arbitration.

Baker McKenzie and the Moot Alumni Association, supported by the ICC, have joined forces to create awareness about how disability inclusion can impact international arbitration – from proceedings to the workplace.

The program and speakers are one of its kind:

15:00 – 15:15	Registration
15:15 – 15:20	Welcome
15:20 – 15:30	Keynote by Guenther J. Horvath (Independent Arbitrator)
15:30 – 16:15	Disability Inclusion or Abuse of Proceedings? Debate on the Practical Application of the ICC Guide on Disability Inclusion Moderated by Courtney Lotfi (Jones Day, Frankfurt) Monika Diehl (Clifford Chance, Warsaw) Désirée Prantl (Baker McKenzie, Vienna) Tom Christopher Pröstler (CMS, Berlin and Hong Kong) Markus Schifferl (BPV Huegel, Vienna) Paolo Vargiu (University of Leicester, Leicester) Agnieszka Zarowna (White & Case, London)
16:15 – 16:45	Ableism and Disability Inclusion in International Arbitration Discussion on Personal Experiences and Future Perspectives Moderated by Tess Bens (University of Vienna/MAA, Vienna) Erin Cronjé (De Brauw Blackstone Westbroeck/Africa in the Moot, Amsterdam) Lena Öllinger (myAbility, Vienna) Nikola Nikolic (Seven Summits Arbitration, Munich) Paolo Vargiu (University of Leicester, Leicester)
16:45 onwards	Networking Reception

Venue: Baker McKenzie, Schottenring 25, 1010 Vienna, Smart Lounge

Please register by 24 March 2024 at the latest: Invitation Disability Inclusion in International Arbitration | 26 March 2024 | 3:00 - 4:45 pm CET \(bakerxchange.com\)

MAA

Moot Alumni Association
國際商業模擬仲裁比賽舊生會

Supported by

ICC
Dispute Resolution
Services

myAbility