THE LEADING ARBITRATORS' GUIDE TO INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

FOURTH EDITION

US ~~$187.00~~, FREE Digital PDF Book with registration to the 20th Annual Leading Arbitrators' Symposium

The Leading Arbitrators' Guide to International Arbitration - Fourth Edition continues to provide thoughtful advice and insights into international arbitration from some of the world's most prominent and experienced arbitrators.

The contributors offer perspectives on how international arbitrations are conducted, focusing on reading pleadings, memorials, listening to witnesses, and hearing arguments. The discussions are intended to be thoughtful, insightful, and occasionally iconoclastic, reflecting the diverse approaches to achieving results in arbitration.

For this Fourth Edition, several new arbitrators have brought fresh perspectives to topics previously covered by former authors:

- Patricia Peterson and Robert Davidson discuss “Settlement Facilitation and the Use of ADR in International Arbitration”
- James Carter addresses “The Role of the Chairman”
- Lawrence Schaner writes on “The Tribunal's Appointment”
- John Beechey and Niccolo Landi consider “The Party-appointed Arbitrator”
- Rocio Digon and Anna Yamaoka-Enkerlin draft the chapter on “Witness Statements: Use and Abuse”

As international arbitration evolves, new chapters cover current topics:

- Chiann Bao on “Technology and Arbitration”
- John Townsend on “Expedited Arbitration”
- Stephanie Cohen on “Non-participating Parties”
- Laurent Levy on “Artificial Intelligence and Arbitration”

This book is valuable not only for those serving as arbitrators in international proceedings but also for advocates seeking to persuade arbitrators, including the authors themselves.
